Americasnexttopgun

New NRHA Million Dollar Sire

Americasnexttopgun has spent his career living up to his name. First, the stallion known as “Maverick” established himself as one of reining’s elite competitors, earning more than $425,000 in the show pen. Now, the next generation has added another milestone to his résumé: Americasnexttopgun is officially an NRHA Million Dollar Sire.

The 2016 stallion, by Walla Walla Whiz and out of NRHA Hall of Fame inductee Americasnextgunmodel, is owned by Triple F Alliance. He was bred and nominated by Arcese Quarter Horses USA.

Before his offspring began making their own mark, Maverick built an impressive record of his own with NRHA $6 Million Rider Casey Deary in the saddle.

Among his career highlights are the 2020 National Reining Breeders Classic Level 4 Open Championship, worth $75,000, and the 2022 6666 NRHA Derby® presented by Markel Level 4 Open Championship, also earning $75,000. That same year, Americasnexttopgun and Deary finished third at The Run For A Million, adding $80,000 to the stallion’s earnings, and were the NRBC Level 4 Open Reserve Champions, earning another $45,000. Their success began on one of reining’s biggest stages, where they finished sixth in the Level 4 Open at the 2019 NRHA Futurity®, earning $42,310. Puno Performance Horses LLC and Jody Puno owned Maverick during his show career.

Now, Maverick’s offspring are building résumés of their own—and have collectively pushed their sire past the million-dollar mark.

Leading the way is Maverickbuzthetower, out of Chics Vintage Flare. Owned by Bosque Ranch Performance Horses LLC, bred by Spradling Unlimited LLC and nominated by Glenn Spradling, Maverickbuzthetower has accumulated $201,262 in NRHA LTE.

With Deary aboard, Maverickbuzthetower delivered his biggest performance to date at the 2025 NRHA Futurity, finishing as the Level 4 Open Reserve Champion and earning $130,000. Earlier that year, the pair finished sixth in the Level 4 Open at the 100X Reining Classic Invitational Futurity for $20,012. In 2026, Cade McCutcheon took the reins, guiding Maverickbuzthetower to sixth place in the Level 4 Open at the 100X Reining Classic 4-Year-Old Stakes and another $18,933.

CCR Theadvocate, out of Its Conquista Cash, has added $114,428 in NRHA LTE to Americasnexttopgun’s record. Owned by Ruth Shade and bred and nominated by Center Cross Ranch LLC, CCR Theadvocate found considerable success during the 2025 season with Julia Roshelli.

At the 100X Reining Classic Invitational Futurity, the pair claimed the Level 2 Open Championship for $18,657 and the Level 3 Open Reserve Championship for another $25,061. Their success continued at the All American Quarter Horse Congress, where they won the All Star Reining Stakes Futurity Level 2 Open for $12,500 and finished reserve in the Level 3 Open for $11,651. At the same Congress, they added a Level 3 Open Reserve Championship in the Congress Futurity for $11,053 and an eighth-place finish in the Level 4 Open worth another $6,375.

Sea To Shiney Sea, out of Lil Shiney Cash, has earned $79,199 in NRHA competition. The gelding is owned by Harper Kiseljack, was bred by Josh Tishman and was nominated by Spring Creek Ranch LLC.

Tishman piloted Sea To Shiney Sea to a sixth-place finish in the Level 3 Open at the 2025 100X Reining Classic Invitational Futurity, earning $13,298, while also finishing in the Level 4 Open top 10 for another $10,006. At the 2025 NRHA Futurity, the duo finished 13th in the Level 3 Open and earned $12,320 for previous owner Spring Creek Ranch LLC. Kiseljack later took over the reins, finishing 11th in the 2026 The Run For A Million Non Pro Reining Challenge and earning more than $4,000.

Another major contributor is HF The Topgun Chic, out of Wimpys Lil Tag. Owned by Stoney Russell and bred and nominated by Heritage Farms, HF The Topgun Chic has accumulated $74,532 in NRHA LTE.

Marcelo Almeida da Silva piloted the stallion to the Level 2 Open Reserve Championship at the 2025 NRHA Futurity, earning $42,500. The pair also finished 15th in the Level 4 Open, adding $25,000, along with nearly $5,000 from the Level 3 Futurity Challenge purse.

Rounding out Americasnexttopgun’s five highest-earning offspring is Danger Zone, out of Dainty Lil Step. Owned by Jody Puno and Puno Performance Horses, LLC, and bred and nominated by Brooke Wharton, Danger Zone has earned $67,854 in NRHA competition.

With Wyatt Deary aboard, Danger Zone won the Levels 2 and 3 Open at the 2026 100X Reining Classic 4-Year-Old Stakes, earning more than $34,000. The pair also claimed the Level 1 Open Championship at the 2026 NRHA Derby for $10,000 after winning Levels 1 and 2 Open at the 2026 NRBC 4-Year-Old Breeders Cup earlier in the season, where they earned $11,380.

For Americasnexttopgun, the Million Dollar Sire distinction adds another chapter to a pedigree already deeply connected to NRHA history. His dam, Americasnextgunmodel, was an NRHA Futurity Champion, Million Dollar Dam and NRHA Hall of Fame inductee, while his sire, Walla Walla Whiz, has established his own lasting influence on the reining industry.

From his own $425,893 career in the arena to the growing success of his offspring, “Maverick” has now crossed one of breeding’s most significant milestones—Americasnexttopgun is an NRHA Million Dollar Sire.

Peter And Courtney Morgan

Join NRHA Million Dollar Owner Ranks

The National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) proudly welcomes Peter and Courtney Morgan to an elite group of reining's most successful supporters as the Association's newest NRHA Million Dollar Owners.

The Morgans officially surpassed $1 million in NRHA owner earnings during the 2026 All American Quarter Horse Congress, adding another milestone to a program that has enjoyed success at some of reining's biggest events.

The Firemen

At the center of that success is The Firemen (Inferno Sixty Six x Redhot Walla), bred and nominated by Tamarack Ranch LLC. With $518,481 in NRHA Lifetime Earnings (LTE), the stallion accounts for more than half of the Morgans' million-dollar total.

The Firemen delivered his defining performance at the 2024 NRHA Futurity®, where Kaci O'Rourke piloted him to both the Level 4 and Level 3 Open Futurity Championships and $420,000 in earnings. The victory was a career-defining moment for both horse and rider, and The Firemen has continued adding to his record in the seasons since.

In 2025, he placed third in the 100X Reining Classic 4-Year-Old Stakes Level 4 Open for $19,402 and sixth in the NRHA Level 4 Open Derby for $17,213. His 2026 campaign included a seventh-place finish in the National Reining Breeders Classic Level 4 Open worth $21,500 and a fifth-place finish in the NRHA Level 4 Open Derby for another $21,643.

The Morgans' success, however, extends well beyond one standout champion.

Gunnabegreatagain (Gunnatrashya x Jills Remedy), bred and nominated by Samantha Tully, has accumulated $79,694 in NRHA LTE. With O'Rourke aboard, he earned $25,000 as a top-20 finisher in the 2025 NRHA Level 4 Open Futurity before returning in 2026 to win the Tamarack Ranch 4-Year-Old Stakes at the 6666 NRHA Derby® presented by Markel, earning $32,554. He also placed seventh in the 2026 100X Reining Classic 4-Year-Old Stakes for $12,509.

The Morgans also own Steeel Magnolia (Magnum Chic Dream x Dun It For Chex), bred and nominated by Cardinal Hill Training Center LLC, who has earned $4,958 in NRHA competition.

Fittingly, several Morgan-owned horses contributed to the final push toward the million-dollar milestone at the 2026 All American Quarter Horse Congress.

Eight Oh Five (Gunnatrashya x Corona Tag), bred by Courtney Battison and nominated by LMJ Enterprises LLC, placed third in the All Star Reining Stakes Level 3 Open Futurity for $8,309 and seventh in the Level 4 for another $7,889, with Jack Daniels at the reins.

Trashy Little Girl (Gunnatrashya x Wimpy Little Girl), bred and nominated by Peter, also delivered for the Morgans at Congress with Nimroid Vannietvelt aboard, placing fifth in the All Star Reining Stakes Level 3 Open Derby for $3,972 while winning both the Level 2 and Level 1 divisions, each worth $6,620.

Vannietvelt also piloted Morgan-owned Alittlebittrashy to a fifth-place finish in the Level 1 for $856 and an 11th-place finish in the Level 2 for $864, helping push the Morgans across the seven-figure threshold.

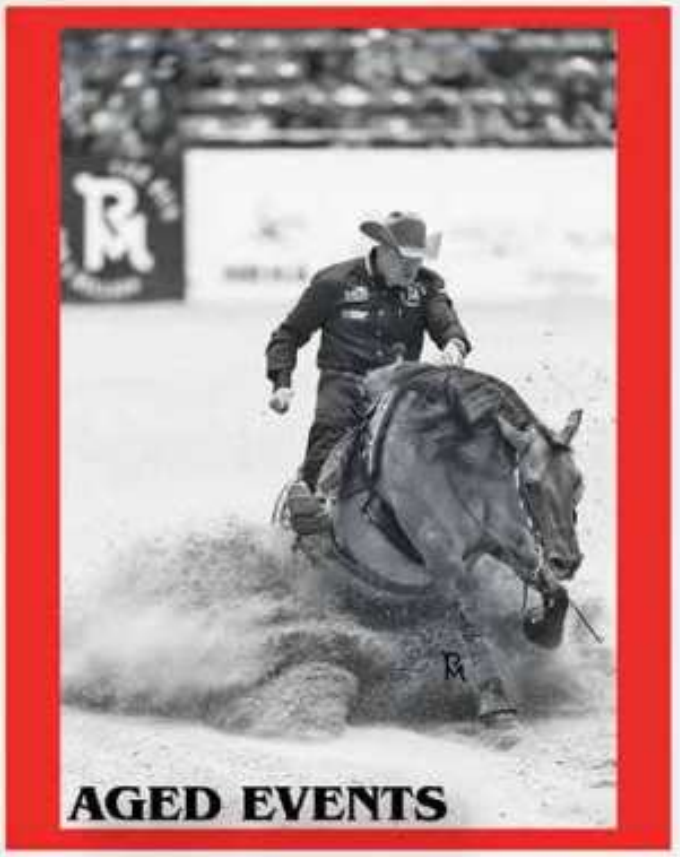

While the million-dollar distinction recognizes success in the show pen, the Morgans' involvement in reining also reaches into their breeding program. One of its cornerstones is Wimpy Little Girl (Wimpys Little Step x Dee Cee), bred and nominated by Michael Foxx. Owned by the Morgans since 2014, the mare has become an important foundation for their program and represents the long-term investment in horses and bloodlines behind their competitive success.

From developing a breeding program to owning horses competing at the highest levels of the sport, Peter and Courtney Morgan have built their million-dollar achievement across more than a decade of involvement in reining.

With the earnings added at the 2026 All American Quarter Horse Congress, Peter and Courtney Morgan officially join the distinguished ranks of NRHA Million Dollar Owners.

Michael Miola – Equine Dreaming

Interview By Tracy Wager

History was rewritten in gold at the South Point Arena & Equestrian Center in Las Vegas during the 2026 edition of The Run For A Million. The high-stakes event, produced by Academy Award-nominated filmmaker Taylor Sheridan, culminated in a performance reining fans will talk about for decades. Kole Price guided the spectacular 2020 stallion Golden Coins to a jaw-dropping, world-record score of 237.5 to capture the $500,000 championship check.

For Golden Coins' breeder, Michael Miola of Silver Spurs Equine, the historic triumph was the ultimate validation of a bloodline built on excellence. Yet, as Miola explained in an exclusive interview with Bridle & Bit Magazine, his newest venture, Equine Dreaming, aims to bring this very same elite athletic talent directly to everyday horsemen.

The Breeder of Golden Coins

The Inspiration & Vision

Q - Your vision for Equine Dreaming is centered on the beautiful idea that an elite horse should be a dream within reach for everyone. What was the exact moment or realization that inspired you to open up these world-class bloodlines to everyday horsemen?

A - Our breeding program started 21 years ago breeding prospects for the Reining industry. What I loved about Reining was contained in the very definition of the sport; (paraphrasing) a demonstration of the partnership between horse and rider where the horse is willfully guided with no resistance. Unfortunately, in my opinion, that is not what Reining has evolved into today. Over the years I watched Clinton Anderson's program grow and realized that the vast majority of people that love and own horses are not interested in professional or non-pro competition, they just want a horse they can ride and have a great time with. That started me on a fact-finding mission, visiting various riding clubs and individuals that owned "pleasure horses". What I learned was that in many cases these horses were, in my opinion, not safe. That was when I realized that what equine enthusiasts desperately needed was something that was never offered to them before: A horse that was bred from the best reining and cow horse bloodlines, that are intelligent, have great confirmation, are athletic, and are easy to train. In other words, the Silver Spurs breeding program. Not only that, combining Silver Spurs prospects with Clinton Anderson's Down Under Horsemanship tried and true training methods were exactly what the equine industry needed. So last year Clinton and I got together, brain stormed, and the result was the Silver spurs subsidiary - Equine Dreaming.

Q - The article highlights how Equine Dreaming allows riders to bypass stressful, high-priced auction bidding wars. How does it feel as an owner to create a welcoming ranch environment where people can simply come and select their dream horse without that added pressure?

A - Michelle, Brett, and I are very excited, in fact, the whole ranch is energized. Our staff loves when people come to take a tour of our ranch and visit our stallions. Visitors cannot believe that they can go into their stalls to hug and love on them. Our boys are such hams; they love having their picture taken. Combine that with visitors going into the pastures to visit our babies! We cannot wait for the 2027 foaling season in Arizona! Buyers will be able to visit with the sire and see our babies interacting with each other and their mama's. Buyers can come as many times as they like to find their equine sole mate with no pressure from us. All we insist is that they have a good time.

The Breeding Program & Excellence

Q - This venture relies on a deeply proven breeding program built entirely on stallions that are legendary champions. How does starting with that level of elite athletic talent give everyday riders a head start in creating their own future champions?

A - Equine Dreaming's prospects are the offspring of legendary sires and handpicked dams. Sires that were champions in the show pen and have produced countless offspring that have won millions in the show pen. This, combined with our handpicked mares of equal prominence, means that a buyer of a Silver Spurs bred Equine Dreaming prospect will have a tremendous head start because it will have all of the attributes I mentioned above bred right into it.

Q - You have carefully designed this program to produce horses that excel both in and out of the competition arena. From a breeding perspective, what specific traits do you look for in your Silver Spurs stallions to ensure their foals have that versatile, champion mindset?

A - Great question! A question that I must preface with the fact that while we breed for certain characteristics, sometimes things do not work out like we planned. By that I mean, you are going to get a great horse, but if we say we bred that horse to be a great trail horse, the foal's true talents may be something else entirely. Here is a example of what I mean: One of the most famous horses in the sport of reining today is a stallion named Golden Coins. His sire is our world-famous Spooks Gotta Gun and his mama is our famous mare Electric Cha Ching (whom we owned at the time). Here is the thing, I bred and foaled out Golden Coins myself to be a trail horse or non-pro reining horse for me and Michelle! However, as he was growing up Brett Stone (winner of the 1992 NRHA Futurity on our beloved stallion Boomernic and our ranch manager for 21 years) told me "Our policy is that we sell all of our prospects and he is going to be a great one so we have to sell him to a great trainer". Oh well, I should have known that combo would produce a great champion.

Anyway, to answer your question, while most breeders breed to create a horse that will be the best professional competition horse in the world and sell for a great deal of money, we do not. Each year we strive to breed approximately 150 to 175 foals and we breed for all types of riders. Knowing the attributes of our stallions and mares, we will try to breed foals that will be on the calmer side and should excel in non-pro reining competition, trail and pleasure riding. We will also breed our stallions and mares that have a lot of cow-sense in them for cow horse competition and ranch riding. Then of course we breed what we call the "Hot Zone" which consist of Stallions bred to mares that have the best show records and produce records to create great competition horses.

Like I said before, we sell all of our prospects and do not hold any back. We want our customer to have the best, not us. If I may adapt a quote from the movie Forest Gump, "Breeding is like a box of chocolates, you never know what you're going to get", at Silver Spurs/Equine Dreaming, we never know which of each year's foal crop will be the next champions.

The Clinton Anderson Partnership

Q - Your partnership with Clinton Anderson adds an amazing layer of support for these young horses. How do you see the combination of Silver Spurs' elite genetics and Clinton's training philosophy helping riders build that unbreakable bond right from the ranch?

A - Here, the most important aspect of our breeding program is our prospects having great minds and easy trainability. In order to have achieved such success in the show pen my stallions obviously have great minds and were easy to train. With the millions of dollars their offspring have won in the show pen it is also obvious that these traits are passed on. However, it would be foolish of me to say that riders will have that unbreakable bond from the time our babies leave our ranch. Experience has demonstrated when its owner consistently spends the time required to employ Clinton's training methods that our foal's intelligence and trainability will create that unbreakable bond. Remember, buyers are purchasing a foal that is under a year old. A foal that has learned everything it knows from its mother, that's it. It is a raw piece of marble and is up to the owner to sculpt the masterpiece. The result, a horse that is truly yours.

To showcase the intelligence and trainability of our stallion's offspring, we are proud to have been the sponsor this year's Down Under Horsemanship's NO EXCUSES NATION that was held from August 28th through the 30th at the South Point Hotel in Las Vegas. Two trainers went head-to-head with Clinton to demonstrate their ability to train totally fresh 2-year old colts bred by Silver Spurs Stallions, that have never been off pasture until they were put on the trailer to go to Las Vegas for the three-day competition to see who was the best trainer. It was so exciting. I hope everyone got a chance to see it in person or on-line.

Kole Price and Golden Coins Rewrite Reining History

By Tracy Wager

The electric atmosphere inside the South Point Arena & Equestrian Center in Las Vegas reached a fever pitch during the 2026 Million Dollar Competition at The Run For A Million (TRFAM). Produced by visionary Taylor Sheridan, this premier western equine event boasts the richest purse in reining history. But nobody in the packed house could have predicted they were about to witness a permanent rewriting of the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) history books.

When NRHA Professional Kole Price guided the brilliant 2020 stallion Golden Coins through the gates, the duo delivered a performance defined by seamless pattern flow, lightning-fast spins, and breathless sliding stops. As the final dust settled, a historic, mind-boggling score of 237.5 flashed across the scoreboard. Not only did this jaw-dropping run secure the coveted $500,000 championship check, but it officially shattered a 19-year-old record to become the highest score ever recorded in NRHA history.

For Golden Coins—an exceptional AQHA/APHA stallion sired by the legendary Spooks Gotta Gun and out of Electric Cha Ching—the victory was a perfect testament to elite equine genetics. Originally bred and foaled out by Michael Miola of Silver Spurs Ranch, the stallion's natural intelligence, conformation, and undeniable athletic power were on full display. "To finally crack it, I knew this horse had it in him," an emotional Price shared after the historic run. "I'm glad that when people hear the highest score, they hear Golden Coins".

The Saddle of Champions: Superior Saddlery Dominates the Big Stage

A champion's performance requires an equally elite foundation, and at the heart of this record-breaking run was Superior Saddlery. Known as the premier American-made reining saddle, the brand proudly holds an unmatched legacy at this prestigious event: 7 Run For A Million Champions, All 7 Ride Superior.

The custom-engineered saddles, crafted with flawless precision by master craftsman Andy Maschke, David Solum, and Monte Anderman, are built to withstand the immense torque and athletic demands of elite reining. Designed to maximize the close-contact partnership between horse and rider, a Superior Saddle allows a competitor to guide their mount willfully and with zero resistance.

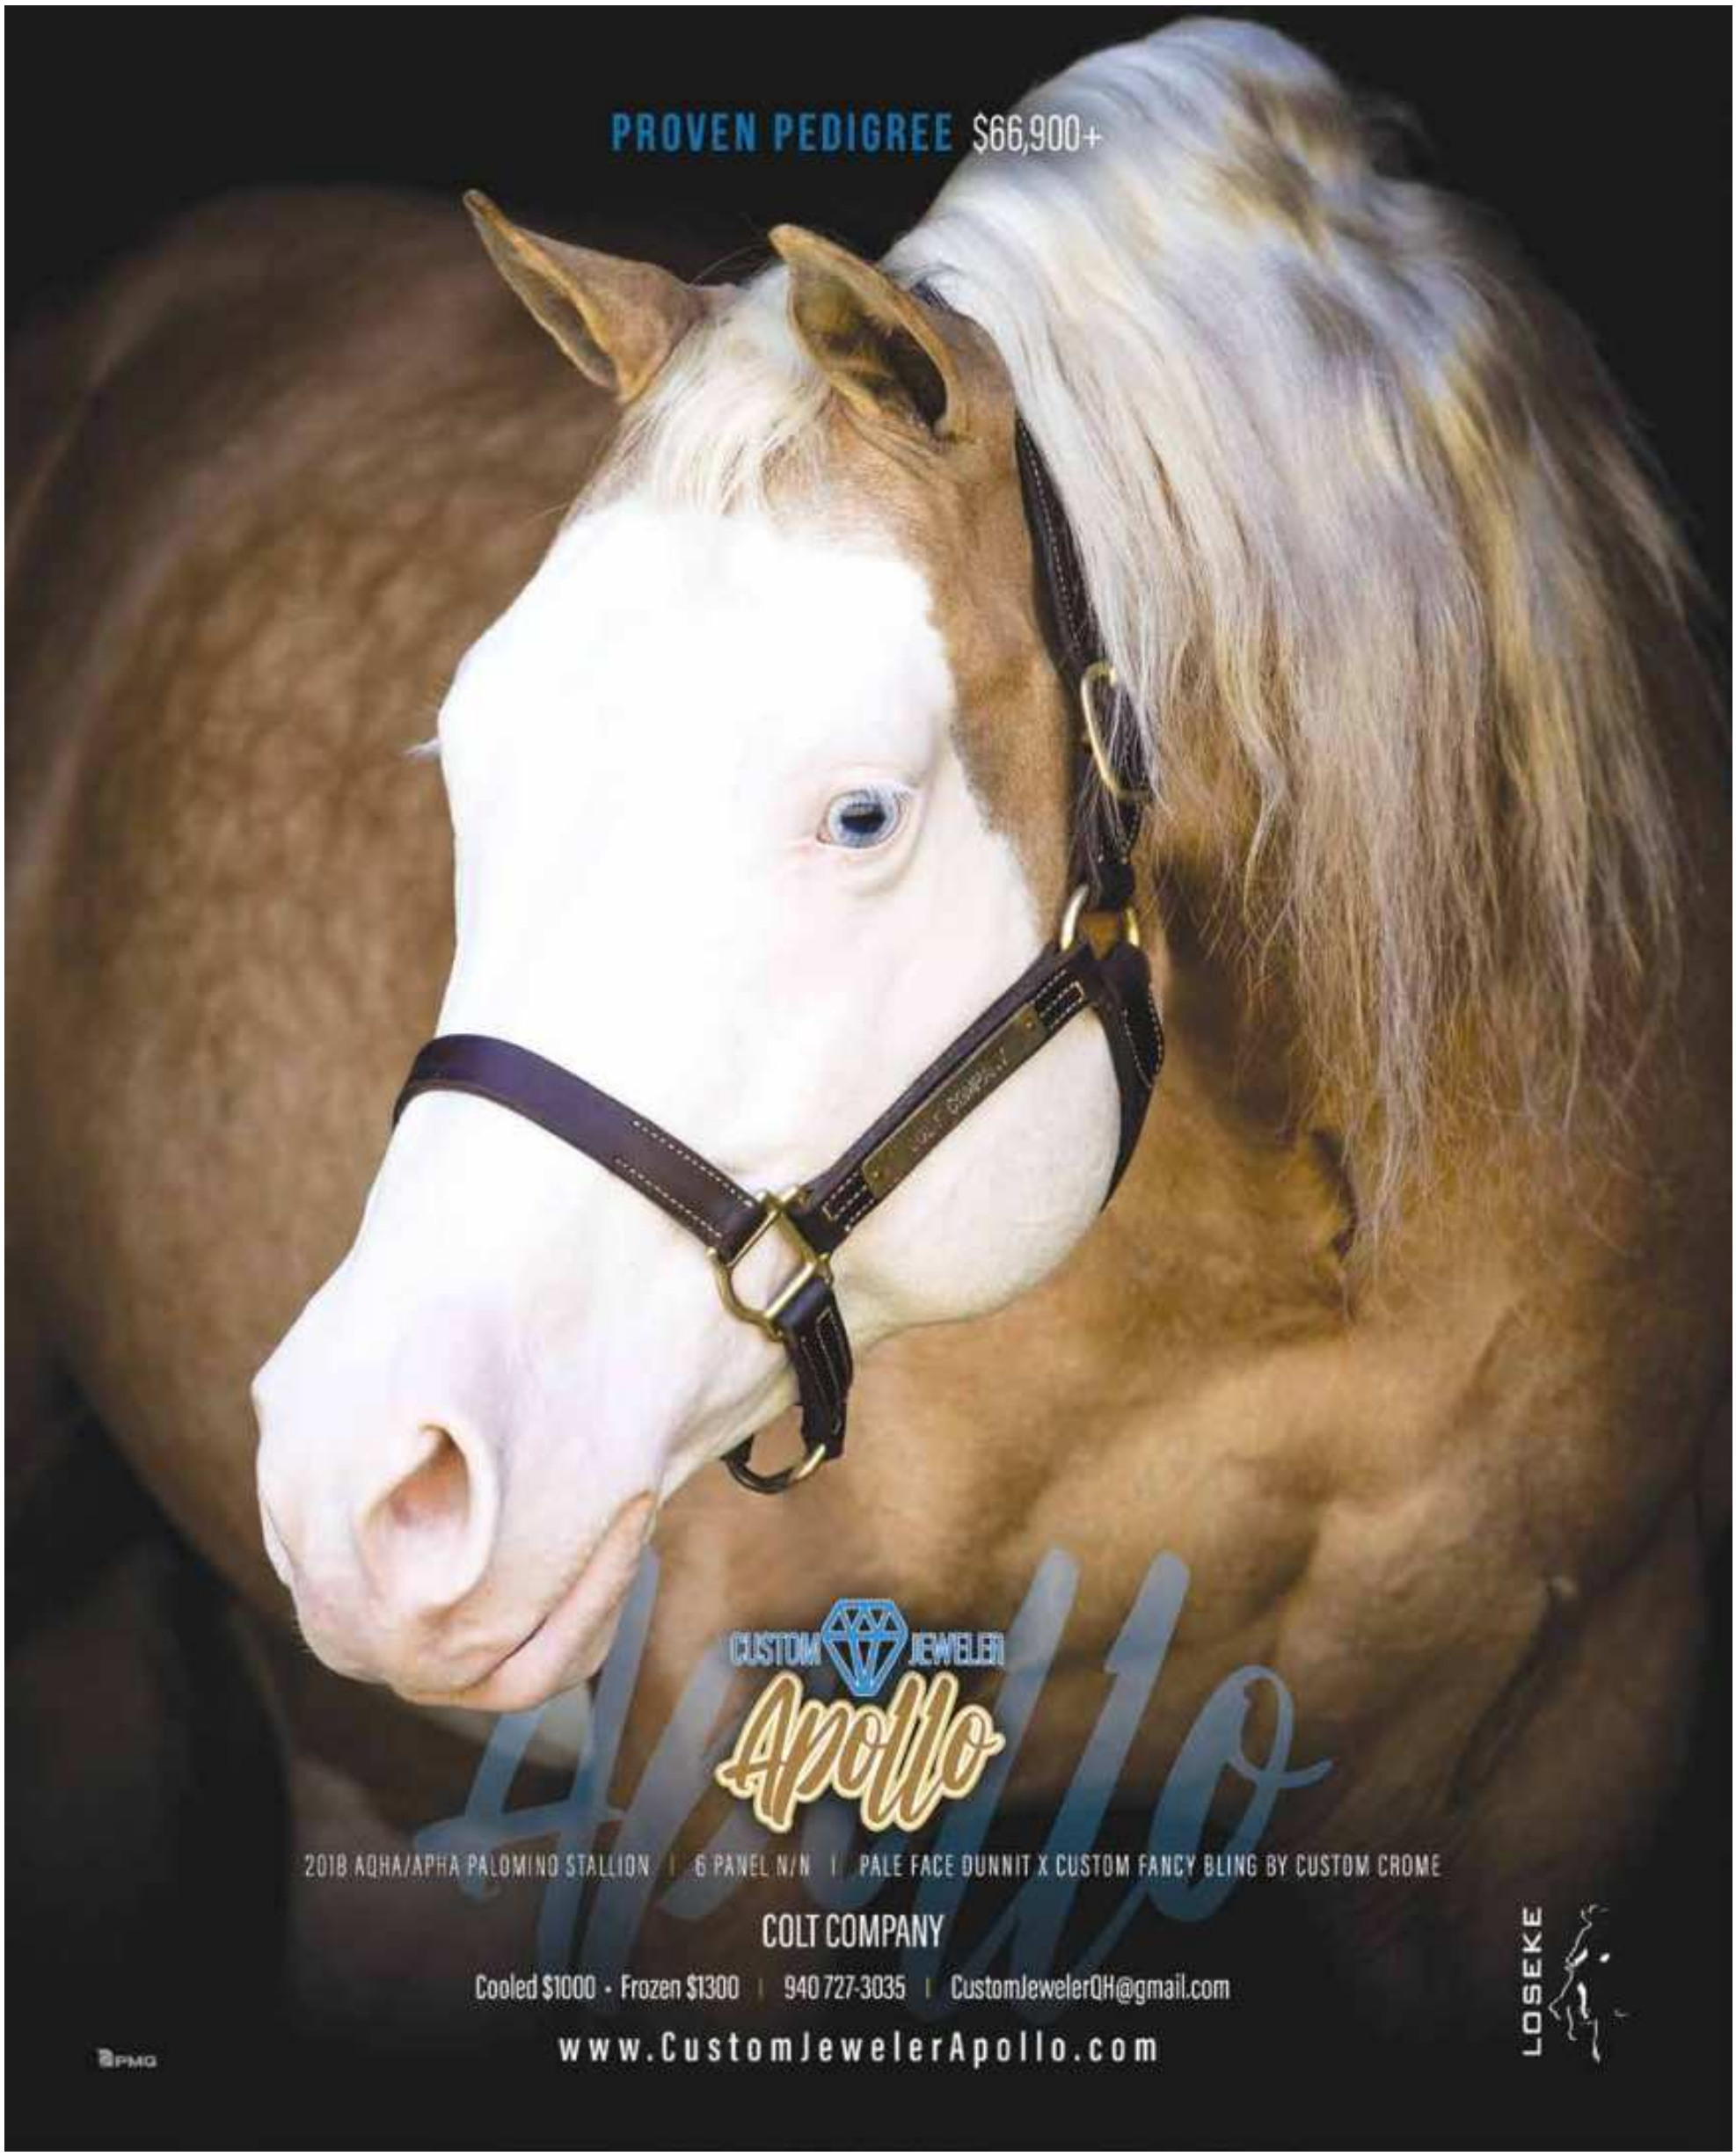

Kole Price is a proud team member of Superior Saddlery, matching the stallion's flawless execution with custom-tailored gear that ensures peak performance. This relentless commitment to elite craftsmanship is exactly why the world's most decorated western horsemen consistently choose the brand. From historic record-breakers to the sport's legendary icons, the golden standard in the arena remains unchanged: if you want to win like a champion, you ride what champions ride.

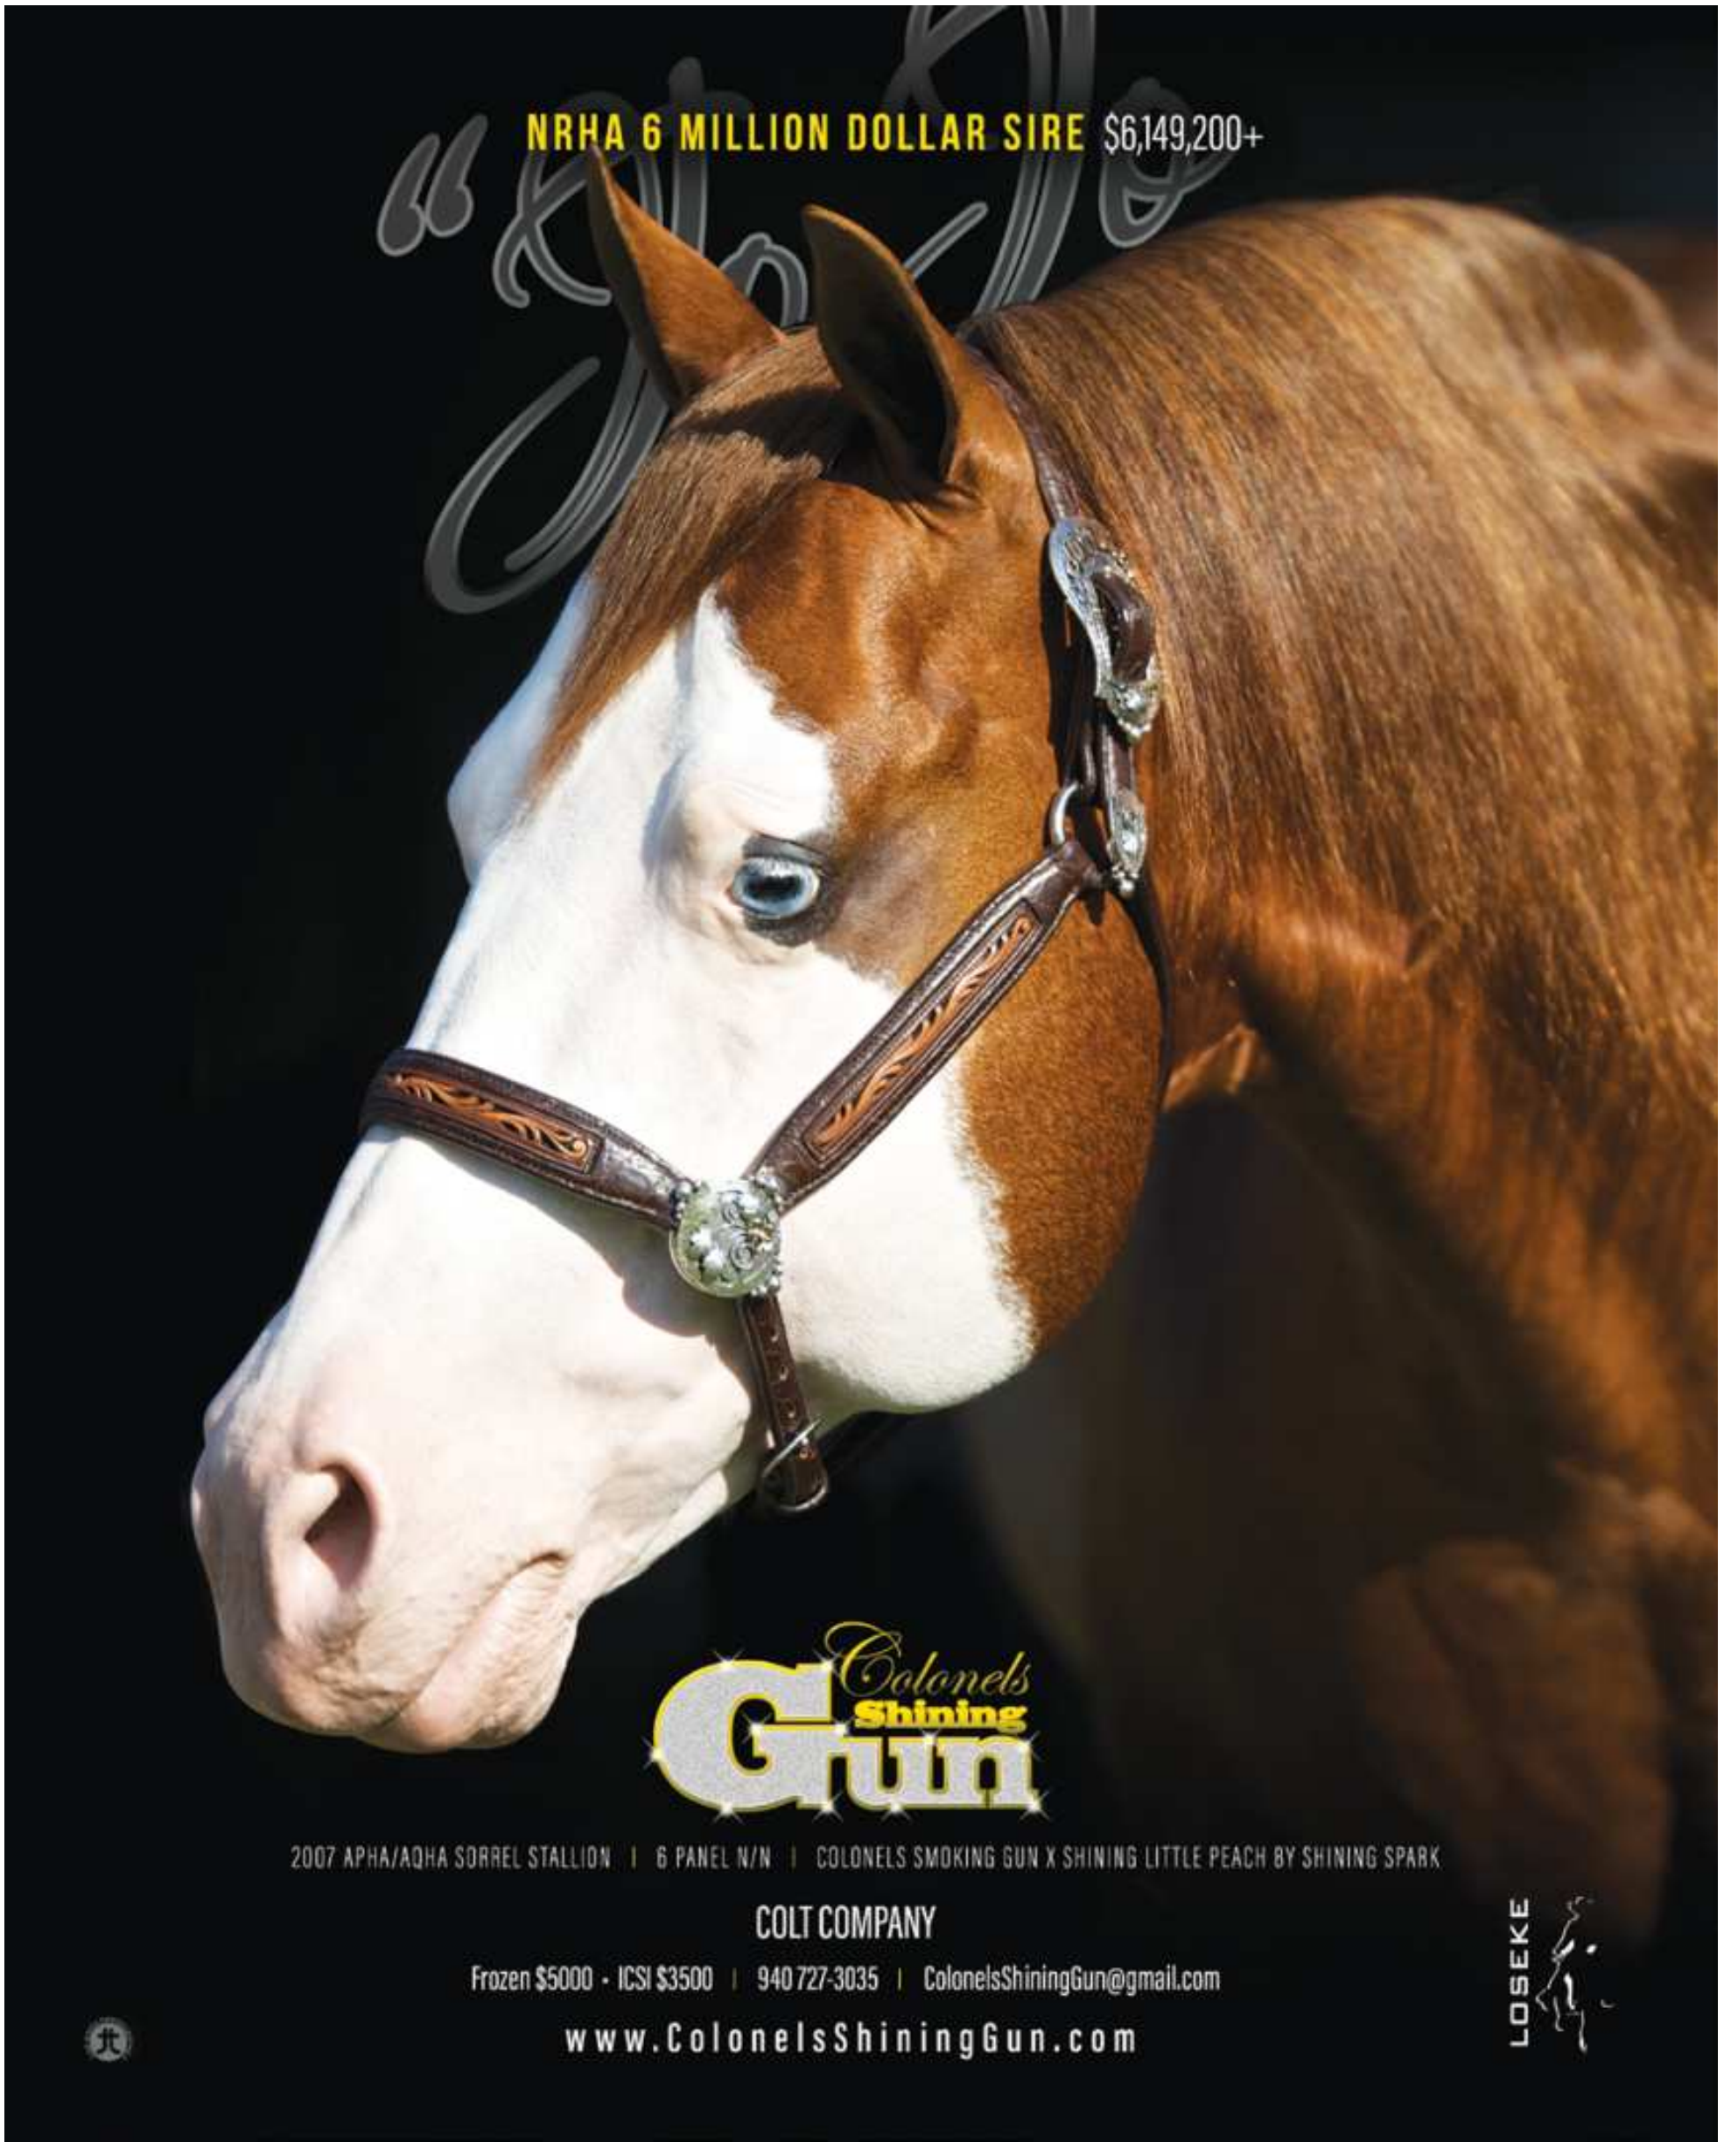

The Elite Honor Roll: Seven Champions Who Ride Superior

The legacy of Superior Saddlery is written by these legendary competitors into the history books. All seven elite horsemen have commanded the arena and secured major triumphs at The Run For A Million event, all while riding in a custom-fit Superior saddle:

- Cade McCutcheon: Etched his name into the history books right from the start as the historic 2019 TRFAM Co-Champion.
- Craig Schmersal: A premier NRHA professional and dynamic rider who consistently anchors the sport's top competitive tiers.

Save the Wilbur-Cruce Mission Horse,
a Living Piece of Arizona History

Meet Miranda, 22, and Sofia, 23—two mares carrying critically rare genetics essential to the future of the Wilbur-Cruce Mission Horse, a rare strain of Colonial Spanish horses.

The Wilbur-Cruce horses are recognized as Arizona Heritage Horses, proclaimed as such by Governor Janice K. Brewer. Today, only a small number remain so every mare matters. Every stallion matters. Every foal matters. Several older mares carry bloodlines that are vital to preserving the breed but will require specialized reproductive assistance.

A Horse of History

In the late 1600s, Father Eusebio Kino established Mission Dolores in what is now Sonora, Mexico, bringing Spanish horses with him.
n the 1880s, a large herd of genetically pure horses from the Mission Dolores region was driven toward the Kansas City stockyards for sale. As the herd passed through Southern Arizona, rancher Dr. Rueben Wilbur purchased a group of these horses that became the foundation of the Wilbur Ranch herd.

For more than 100 years, the growing herd, isolated from outside breeding provided working stock on the ranch, They adapted to the rugged desert and were dependable and essential mounts.
Eva Antonia Wilbur-Cruce, Dr. Wilbur's granddaughter, lovingly recalled these horses in her memoir, A Beautiful Cruel Country, calling them her "little Rock horses." She described them as companions with speed, stamina, and intelligence.

A Miraculous Rescue

In 1989, approximately 113 horses remained on the ranch when the Nature Conservancy purchased the 1,600-acre property adjacent to the Buenos Aires Wildlife Refuge. The horses could no longer remain and faced the possibility of auction or slaughter.

Fortunately, experts familiar with Colonial Spanish horse populations took notice. With assistance from the Livestock Conservancy and members of the Spanish Mustang Registry, the herd was evaluated and determined to represent a unique strain of Old-World Spanish horses. DNA testing provided further confirmation. Equine geneticist Dr. Gus Cothran, PhD, determined that the Wilbur-Cruce horses represent a very small group of strains derived from Spanish Colonial horses that have persisted as pure—or nearly pure—Spanish horses. They are the only known rancher strain of pure Spanish horses remaining in the Southwest. Because of Eva's desire to protect her beloved horses, she donated the herd to the Livestock Conservancy for placement with conservation breeders who committed to their preservation.

Urgent Action is Needed

Today, just over 100 pure Wilbur-Cruce horses remain. The Spanish Barb Horse Association (SBHA) is working to protect this extraordinary piece of living history.

The SBHA's SOS Mare Initiative was created to fund the use of advanced reproductive technologies for these important older mares, but these procedures are costly. To address this problem, the SBHA has partnered with GeneTech, specializing in equine reproduction and embryology. The opportunity is within reach, and your donation can help make it possible.

The Wilbur-Cruce Mission Horse is more than a rare breed. It is a living connection to the early horses brought to North America. They are ancestors of horses ridden by vaqueros and early cowboys. Spanish Colonial horses contributed to the foundation of many American breeds, including the Quarter Horse, Paint, Morgan and many gaited breeds.
Today, Wilbur-Cruce horses continue to demonstrate their versatility, dependability, endurance, and are especially known for their ability to form strong bonds with "their" people.

Your Donation Can Help Secure Their Future

Your donation to the SOS Mare Initiative can help preserve the genetics of these remarkable mares and give future generations the opportunity to know, ride and cherish the horses that helped shape the history of the American Southwest.

The Spanish Barb Horse Association is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. Donations are tax-deductible as allowed by law.

CALEB MCMILLAN NAMED 2026 LINDERMAN AWARD WINNER

BY ALEX DODD, PRCA MEDIA REPORTER

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. — The PRCA Linderman Award is one of the most prestigious awards in PRORODEO.

It recognizes a cowboy who earned at least $1,000 in three events during the PRORODEO season, and those events must include at least one roughstock and one timed event.

Caleb McMillan is the 2026 Linderman Award winner after an exceptional season in which he earned more than $1,100 in five events.

"It's pretty special," McMillan told the PRORODEO Sports News after winning the award. "It's the definition of a true all-around cowboy. All of the great cowboys from the Whitakers to Jesse Bail. There are a bunch of those guys (who won the Linderman), and they're real cowboys."

The 28-year-old said competing on both sides of the arena highlights the versatility of a true all-around cowboy.

"They were all very good at what they did," McMillan said. "They were very good cowboys and true all-around hands. It's kind of the definition of what a true all-around cowboy is."

The Soap Lake, Wash., cowboy finished the season with $12,663 in tie-down roping, $6,452 in bull riding, $1,102 in team roping ($811 as a header and $291 as a heeler), $4,798 in steer wrestling and $1,963 in steer roping.

It marked McMillan's second time receiving the honor, which he also won in 2024. He's excited to return to the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo presented by Tractor Supply Company, which runs from Dec. 3-12, and be recognized on the dirt again.

"It was awesome (in 2024)," McMillan said of his last trip to Las Vegas to receive the award. "My wife and I got to stay in the hotel, and we'd just gotten married last time, so it was a pretty fun little trip."

McMillan finished the season with $26,979 in earnings across five events and missed out on qualifying for his first NFR. But he plans to travel to Las Vegas to receive the Linderman Award during Round 7 of the NFR on Dec. 9 at the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas.

"It's an honor. There's no other way to put it. It's just an honor," McMillan said. "I'm very blessed to be part of that elite group of guys."

A Cowboy Christmas in Queen Creek

Horseshoe Park welcomes families, holiday shoppers and the Western community for two days of Christmas fun and Trade Days.

Some of the best holiday memories begin with making time for a day together. A little shopping, a visit with Santa and a chance to catch up with friends can be a welcome break from December's crowded schedules. This year, Queen Creek Cowboy Christmas & Trade Days offers a place to bring those simple pleasures together—with a Western touch.

Scheduled for December 19–20, 2026, at Horseshoe Park & Equestrian Centre, the event runs from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. both days. Admission is free, and activities take place under the covered arena, making this an inviting addition to the final weekend before Christmas.

For families, the appeal goes well beyond checking another gift off the list. A Kids Zone gives younger visitors something to look forward to, while a photo booth and Santa Claus offer opportunities to capture a holiday memory. Parents and grandparents can make an outing of it, leaving time to browse the vendor market and enjoy being together before Christmas week arrives.

The timing gives holiday shoppers another reason to visit. With Christmas just days away, the vendor market offers a chance to finish shopping in a setting that feels at home in Queen Creek's horse community. Bring a friend, compare finds and take a little time with the search. Holiday shopping can be part of the celebration itself.

Trade Days adds a practical attraction for horse owners, ranch families and anyone with equipment ready for a new home. Participants can rent a space and consign used saddles and tack, trucks, trailers, tractors or RVs. For sellers, it is an opportunity to put those items in front of visitors who may have a use for them. For shoppers, it adds another reason to explore the event.

That combination gives Cowboy Christmas its character. One family member may come for Santa, another for the vendor market and another with an interest in saddles or equipment. There is room for those different interests within the same holiday outing.

Vendors are also being invited to participate. Businesses and individuals interested in space or consignment details can contact the Horseshoe Park office to learn more.

December tends to fill up quickly, but a good holiday outing does not need to be complicated. With free admission, family activities and a Western marketplace gathered under the covered arena, Queen Creek Cowboy Christmas & Trade Days offers a reason to set aside a few hours, bring the family and enjoy the season close to home.

CLEAN SANDS

PROBLEM WITH STONES IN ARENA FOOTING?

CleanSands Screen Sifting machines work extremely well as equestrian stone cleaners. From horse arena footings, paddocks, corrals, or tracks, these horse arena cleaners sift out debris that is beneath the surface, not only on the surface. They help in removing harmful stones/rocks preventing Hoof Bruising. They attach directly to a tractor three-point hitch system (lower arms and top link) making them very maneuverable around equestrian facilities, corral, paddock, and arena areas.

AQHA Names Jeff Hill General Counsel

Attorney brings more than two decades of legal experience and a longstanding connection to the American Quarter Horse industry.

The American Quarter Horse Association has hired Jeffrey A. "Jeff" Hill as its new general counsel. Hill brings extensive legal experience and firsthand knowledge of AQHA competition through his years of service as an AQHA judge.

In his new role, Hill will oversee the Association's legal affairs and provide legal guidance to support AQHA's operations and mission.

"Jeff brings a valuable combination of legal experience and a deep understanding of AQHA and the members we serve," said AQHA Chief Executive Officer Dave Dellin. "His background as an attorney and an AQHA judge gives him a perspective that will benefit our leadership team and the Association as we work to strengthen our programs and services."

Based in Amarillo, Texas, Hill has practiced through The Law Office of Jeffrey A. Hill since 2014. He previously served as an assistant district attorney in the 47th District Attorney's Office in Amarillo from 2011 to 2014 and as a deputy county attorney in Scotts Bluff County, Nebraska, from 2003 to 2008. His legal background includes criminal law, litigation and courtroom experience.

Hill became an AQHA all-around judge in 1995 and earned his Versatility Ranch Horse judge certification in 2011. His judging assignments included the 2004 AQHYA World Championship Show and the 2015 AQHA Select World Championship Show. He served as an AQHA judge through 2020. Hill also served on the AQHA International Committee for several years in the early 2000s.

"AQHA has been an important part of my life, and I'm grateful for the opportunity to serve the Association in this new capacity," Hill said. "My years as a judge gave me an appreciation for the dedication of our members and the integrity of our competition programs. I look forward to bringing that experience and my legal background to a role that supports the American Quarter Horse and the people who make this community so special."

Hill earned his juris doctor from the University of Nebraska College of Law and a bachelor of business administration in banking and finance from the University of Nebraska at Omaha.

AQHA Introduces Medication Guideline Database

New searchable resource provides convenient access to medication classifications and dosing guidelines.

The American Quarter Horse Association is pleased to introduce its Medication Guideline Database, a new online resource designed to provide members with a simpler, more convenient way to search medication classifications and dosing guidelines outlined in the 2026 AQHA Official Handbook of Rules and Regulations and the 2026 Medication Guidelines.

The database brings information from these two resources into one searchable tool, making it easier for exhibitors, owners and trainers to navigate medication guidelines as they prepare for competition and care for their American Quarter Horses.

The Medication Guideline Database supplements AQHA's official resources. It does not include every drug or medication that may be administered to a horse or every applicable rule or guideline. Members should use the database alongside the official handbook, including rules VIO300 through VIO407, and the medication guidelines to review AQHA's medication policies and requirements.

Members can access the database through the show department's exhibitor resources page and AQHA's animal welfare webpage. For questions about medication use and guidelines, contact the medication hotline at 1-(800)-633-2472. Questions about the database may be directed to animalwelfare@aqha.org.

AQHA remains committed to providing members with resources that support informed decision-making, responsible horse care and compliance with Association rules and regulations.

PRO RODEO TURNS 90

On, Oct. 30, 1936, by joining ranks to boycott a rodeo in Boston, a group of 61 cowboys forced the promoter to improve judging and increase the prize money. They picked the name Cowboys' Turtle Association in reflection of the fact that they had been slow to act but had finally stuck their necks out there for the cause.

Hugh Bennett, a timed-event cowboy from Fort Thomas, Ariz., is credited with organizing the strike. Bennett was the 1932 world champion steer wrestler and went on to win the world title in steer roping in 1938.

In 1947, succeeding the CTA, the Rodeo Cowboys Association begins implementing rules regarding rodeo livestock welfare. In 1975, the RCA changes its name again to the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association,

EXTERIOR RENDERINGS COMPLETED FOR NEW $70 MILLION PRCA HQ, PRORODEO HALL OF FAME IN CHEYENNE, WYO.

The final exterior renderings for the new PRCA Headquarters and ProRodeo Hall of Fame in Cheyenne, Wyo., are complete.

The new building project is expected to cost $70 million, funded through a combination of public and private money.

"The interior design is also nearing completion, and it's exciting to see this come to life on paper," PRCA CEO Tom Glause said. "I'm really excited to see the next stage of the project, and with these conceptual drawings of the outside. When we break ground, that will be another monumental achievement."

Located at the Southwest corner of Interstate 80 and Interstate 25, the complex anchoring Cheyenne's Hitching Post District will make a bold impression with a bright, Western-themed aesthetic, a grand ranch-style entrance and a building that grabs your attention from the highway.

Work on the infrastructure at the Hitching Post is expected to commence next month when the road is cut through the site.

The 69,270-square-foot facility was designed by MOA Architecture – an award-winning firm with offices in Denver and Casper, Wyo. – in collaboration with the PRCA, ProRodeo Hall of Fame and Cheyenne LEADS.

Icon Global U.S. Jumping Team Finishes Fourth at Longines League of Nations™ Final Barcelona

Barcelona, Spain – The Icon Global U.S. Jumping Team finished fourth in the Longines League of Nations Final on a final team score of 12 faults after two rounds of top international competition to conclude the 2026 LLN season. The top eight teams qualified through this year's four LLN events earned an invitation to the series final, alongside the host nation of Spain. Germany and Brazil finished tied on four penalties following both rounds, resulting in a jump-off, which saw Germany ultimately take the win on a final total of zero faults.

"I'm proud of how the team fought in a very competitive final," said Chef d'Equipe Robert Ridland. "Laura [Kraut] and McLain [Ward] were outstanding jumping double clear in both rounds with Tres Bien Z and Jordan Molga M. Kristen [Vanderveen] and McKayla [Langmeier] were both competing in their first League of Nations Final, and they handled the pressure and the atmosphere really well with solid results throughout the week. The margins for error at this level are small, and we had a few unlucky moments, but everyone dug deep for the team. I want to thank the owners, grooms, and support team who make it possible for us to be competitive at these international events."

Laura Kraut and Tres Bien Z (©Digitshots)

Laura Kraut (Royal Palm Beach, Fla.) and Tres Bien Z, a 2015 Zangersheide gelding (Toulon x Nabab de Reve) owned by St. Bride's Farm and cared for by Alex Tyler-Morris, led off for the U.S., and showcased consistent form in both rounds for the team as they tackled the significant track built by Santiago Varela (ESP). The pair delivered a strong clear effort to start round one with positive momentum, before returning to produce a very competitive second clear in round two.

USDA confirms first New World screwworm detection in US wildlife

By Caitlin McCafferty

An elk harvested on a Texas game ranch marks the first wildlife case of the parasite in the US, prompting expanded surveillance and a call for hunters and wildlife professionals to report suspicious wounds.

The USDA Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) has confirmed the first detection of New World screwworm (NWS) in wildlife in the United States. The parasite was found in an elk located on a game ranch in Pecos County, Texas. The case was reported after the animal was harvested by a hunter.1

In response, the Texas Animal Health Commission will modify a previously established infested zone, while USDA and the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department (TPWD) conduct additional wildlife surveillance in the area.

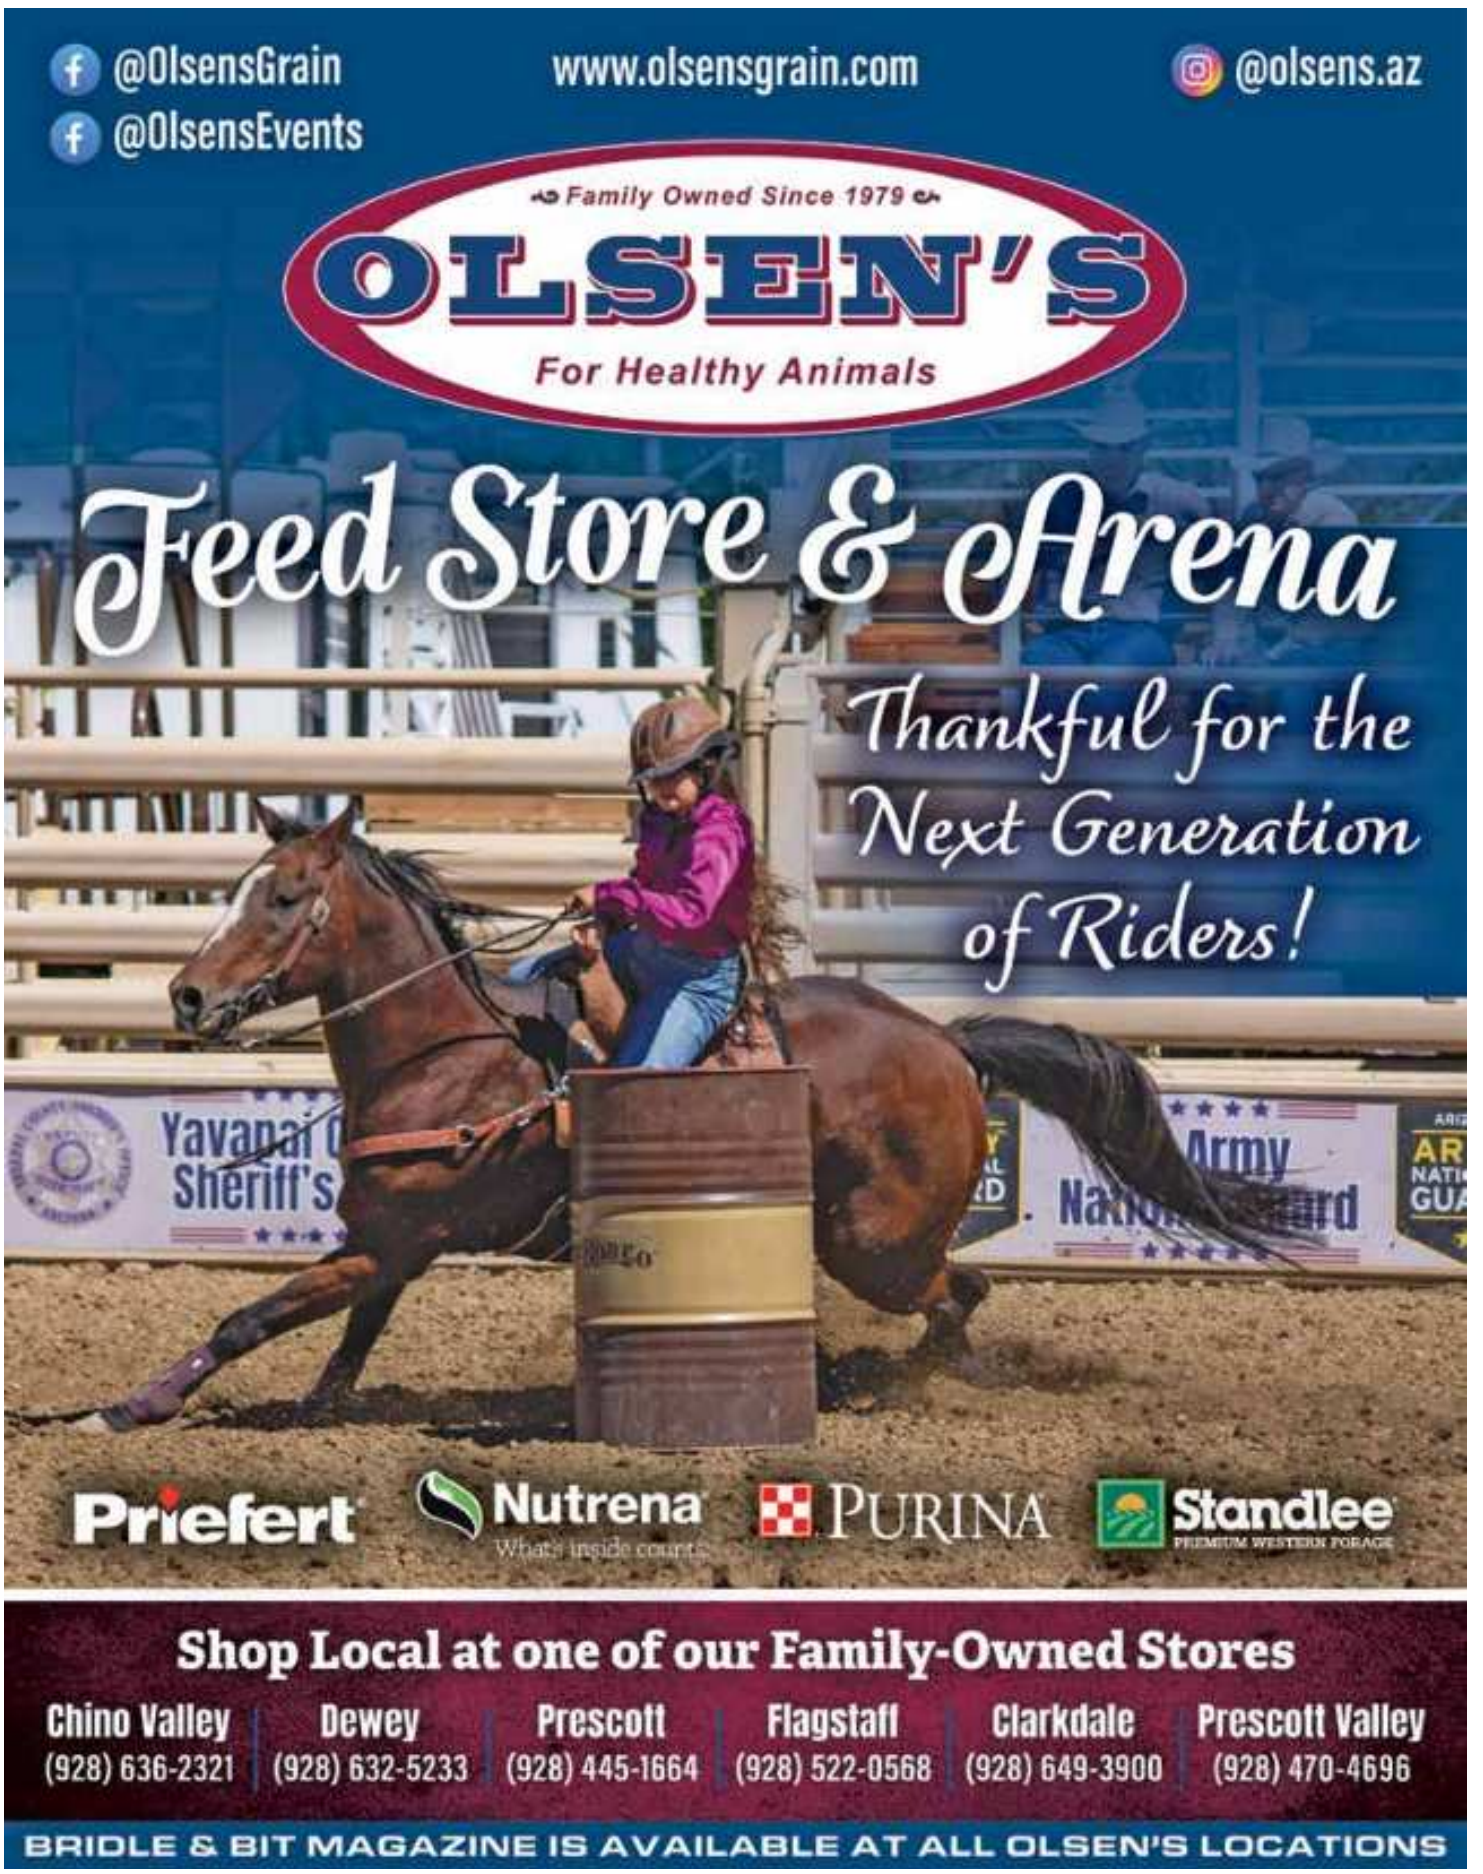

"Early reporting is one of the most important tools we have to protect wildlife, livestock, and pets in the United States," APHIS stated in its announcement.

According to APHIS, all warm-blooded wildlife species are susceptible to NWS, and infested animals that go untreated die quickly, a dynamic that can reduce wildlife populations. The agency describes wildlife surveillance as crucial to controlling NWS outbreaks because wild animals can carry the pest over wide areas and across state lines.

That mobility makes wildlife a concern not only for wild species but also for the livestock and companion animals that share the same landscape. Monitoring screwworm in wild populations is an important part of protecting other animals, the agency noted.

Larvae in wounds or body openings
Open, draining, or enlarging wounds
Foul-smelling injuries
Animals that appear weak, lethargic, isolated, or in distress
Signs of infestation around the nose, mouth, ears, eyes, or genital areas

NM confirms screwworm case

PIÑON, N.M. – New Mexico animal health officials have confirmed a case of New World screwworm in a beef cow in Otero County.
State and federal officials are continuing to expand surveillance and fly-trapping around affected locations to identify any additional cases and determine whether the pest has spread beyond the affected animals.

"We are working closely with our state and federal partners to investigate these cases, increase surveillance and monitor for additional infestations," said State Veterinarian Dr. Samantha Holeck with the New Mexico Livestock Board.

Officials have established a minimum 12.4-mile radius infested zone around the affected animal's location. Within this zone, animals must be inspected and, if necessary, treated before moving within or out of the area.

A HISTORIC GEM IN ARIZONA'S SAN RAFAEL VALLEY

TBD FOREST SERVICE 5783 ROAD, PATAGONIA, AZ 85624
2 BEDS | 3 BATHS | 1,500 SQ FT | $7,000,000

This is arguably the most beautiful ranch in Arizona in one of the most scenic, coveted ranching locations in the American West. Covering 6,066 +/- acres in the heart of the spectacular San Rafael Valley in southeast Arizona. The Lazy J2 Ranch is a working cattle ranch with a carrying capacity of 200 head year round. The ranch consist of 954 +/- deeded acres with six large pastures, several smaller pastures & a charming ranch home. It also includes the 5,112 +/- acre A-Bar Draw USFS allotment with five large pastures. The deeded & leased land are very well watered with multiple wells, tanks, water lines & fences are in very good condition. Entering this very private, heavenly valley is a truly a breath taking event every time. The flowing grasslands surrounded by the blue & lavender mountains create a site that is easy to fall in love with. It lies between the Patagonia Mountains west, Huachuca Mountains east and the Canelo Hills north. The San Rafael is an uncommon, sequestered hidden valley unknown to many native Arizonans, yet is the location for over 50 feature films including OKLAHOMA. It is an extraordinarily unique piece of the West, steeped in history as the western entry point for the Europeans into what is now the United States in 1539, to the Native American Apache Tribe and Buffalo Soldiers in the 1800s. The San Rafael Valley has been a successful ranching landscape for generations of many families for hundreds of years.
